THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Church,

In 1 Corinthians, Chapter 7 specifically, Apostle Paul is responding to some questions regarding marriage within the context and culture of the church at Corinth. Although, this was written to a specific group, these are biblical principles applicable to us today regarding singleness and marriage.

Marriage is a wonderful gift from God and His plan for the foundation of families and of society. However, we live in a society full of loud voices that seem to be shouting in our ears regarding sexuality, marriage and family relationships.

Our culture seems to be actively imposing views, thoughts and practices, contrary to Biblical principles. In these next few sermons, I will endeavor to share God's Word with love and humility, with the understanding that any discussion of these topics emits strong emotions, and feelings as we have a very diverse background and experience in regard to some of these topics. As we study these passages I am seeking God's grace and direction in sharing these principles with you.

I do ask for your prayers, grace and patience as we study these biblical principles regarding marriage, singleness and sexuality.

Peace and blessings, Pastor Clyde

P.S. Please keep the tear-off handy this week as you seek the Lord with prayer and fasting for the many needs we face.
