Good morning, Church,
God has ordained that my time as your transitional pastor has come to an end. With this morning's message I have preached 61 sermons, covering many different topics. With each of these messages, my heart has been to feed the sheep.

As I struggle to find the right words to say good-bye, I want to encourage you to reflect on the following farewell address from Paul found in 2 Corinthians 13:11, "Dear brothers and sisters, I close my letter with these last words: Be joyful. Grow to maturity. Encourage each other. Live in harmony and peace. Then the God of love and peace will be with you."

The commands that Paul shares are timeless and applicable to us today. Be Joyful: we have joy and peace through our relationship with Christ.

Grow to Maturity: each of us should have a desire to become mature followers of Christ.

Encourage each other: both our attitudes and actions should lift up and encourage one another.

Live in harmony and peace: unity and peace within the church is critical to its spiritual well-being.

Sometimes we blow it, however our desire should be to promote unity and peace in our attitudes and actions. As God has loved us, let us love each other and remember that God is with us.

I thank God for the privilege of being able to serve and minister together with you for this past year. You will continue to be in our hearts and prayers. Peace and Blessings, Pastor Clyde
