from LifeChain... There is a natural feeling of excitement and celebration when people gather for a common purpose. However, this is a solemn and serious battle. Please do not allow your faces and actions to conflict with the somber message of our signs. LifeChain is a time of individual silent prayer and meditation. We need it. God expects it. The powers behind abortion shun it. Humble, fervent prayer can help us turn the corner from feeble efforts to powerful acts of repentance. We must trust God instead of relying on our own strength.

LifeChain founder Royce Dunn asks: "Who can doubt that it's better to have 100 praying Christians in a LifeChain than 1,000 people watching traffic?" We must pray. Let us pray and meditate continually with eyes closed some of the time unless you are watching small children. Feel free to kneel and pray. Let us be humble yet bold in our witness before man and his Creator. Our need for God's divine intervention is critical; we must not waste this precious hour.

"Pray Continually" 1 Thessalonians 5:17 In the spirit of Christian love, let's commit to be peaceful, prayerful and polite in both word and deed.

Deacon Ministry

Our church's Constitution provides that "In accordance with the New Testament origin and function of the office, deacons are to possess the heart of a servant and to demonstrate moral and ethical integrity, as indicated in such passages as Acts 6:1-7; and I Timothy 3:8-13. Moreover, they are to be mature believers and exemplary in their churchmanship, as demonstrated in their consistent tithing, worship attendance, Bible study participation, and involvement in the ministry and mission of the church."

We currently have four active Deacons, two of which were recently ordained on July 9th. In keeping with our family ministry plan and God's Word that deacons be servants, we have broken down our church directory alphabetically as follows:

- A-E is Shelby Alcott
- F-J is Manasseh Ngare
- K-Q is Kenny Mitchell
- R-Z is Kieth Schultz

Your Deacon will soon reach out to you to become better acquainted with you, establish a plan for keeping in touch, and to hear your prayer concerns.

Another top priority of the deacons is to work with our pastor to look after and pray for the spiritual health of the Church. The Constitution (updated 4/30/2023) on page 4, section 2 shows that the Pastor and Deacons should mutually evaluate their office with the goal of continually improving the effectiveness of the Church's ministry.

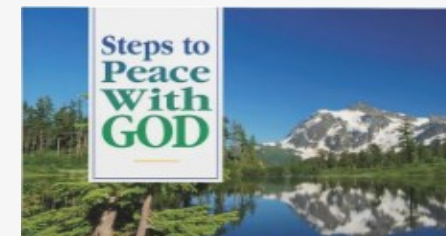

Lastly, the deacons, working together with the Pastoral Care Team, are creating and will be adopting a Benevolence Policy. This will give us consistent guidelines in helping those in need within our church. We will also be establishing procedures governing requests for outside assistance.

From Pastor T.J.

Are you sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with others? (through gospel tracts or testimony or...)

If so, I want to hear about it! My intention is to briefly share your experience with others in the congregation so they can be encouraged and emboldened to do the same!

Please send a description of what you shared, who you shared it with, and how, along with any other important details through email or text:

tjrehak828@gmail.com,
