

Starting with things that can add up to a lot: interruptions

Do you ever feel that you spend your life trying to find order, purpose and meaning while presiding over chaotic circumstances or feel pulled in many directions by responsibilities you've taken on or others have presumed upon you?

Had any major interruptions in the last year?

Regarding the "little" things, let's talk about _____ and _____ (Mark 6:30-34)

- What were Jesus's options?
- He responded as he did because he knew who he was
- Do you know who you are? What you and others have a right to expect of you?

We also need to talk about _____

- Always remember, _____ not "things" are of eternal importance
- Reason and Theology
- A leap of faith required
